and via Conference Call

- What is your outlook for the U.S. and global banking sectors? What are the implications of recent stresses in these sectors for financial markets and the real economy?
- What are your expectations for U.S. economic growth and inflation? How are you thinking about the global macroeconomic outlook? What risks do you see ahead?
- How do you expect the path of monetary policy to evolve in the U.S., and how might it diverge internationally? How do risks to the economic outlook and/or financial stability inform your policy expectations?
