

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK
33 Liberty Street, New York, NY 10045

November 4, 2024

Election of Directors
For Terms of Office Ending December 31, 2027

To: Member Banks of the Second Federal Reserve District
Subject: Election of Reserve Bank Directors

In accordance with Section 4 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, and the circular for the nomination of directors dated September 30, 2024, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York is conducting an election of those directors whose terms expire on December 31, 2024. Those directors are Class A director, René F. Jones, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of M&T Bank Corp.; and Class B director, Scott Rechler, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of RXR. Both director positions were elected by member banks in Group 1, that is, member banks with capital and surplus of more than $2 billion, and their successors will be chosen by this Group. Member banks in Groups 2 and 3 will not participate in this election. Shown on the following pages are the names of the candidates nominated for such offices, and by whom nominated.

In order to be counted as valid, the ballot must be executed by an officer authorized to cast the vote and must be received by this Bank at or before the time fixed for the closing of the polls (i.e., at or before 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, November 20, 2024). The officers heretofore designated for this purpose by each bank in Group 1 are listed on pages six and seven. Any Group 1 bank that desires to change its authorization should do so by resolution of its board of directors (a form for this purpose is attached at the end of this circular). A certified copy of such resolution should be returned to this Bank in PDF format via email to: ny.frb.bodelections@ny.frb.org and must reach this Bank before the polls close on or before 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, November 20, 2024.

The law provides that the ballots shall be cast within 15 days after receipt of this list. The polls will open at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, November 4, 2024, and will close at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, November 20, 2024. Upon the closing of the polls, the votes will be counted and checked, and the results of the election announced.

Information Concerning Eligibility for
Class A and Class B Directorship of a Federal Reserve Bank

Noted below are policy statements and certain statutory requirements that are relevant to your selection of a nominee for Class A and Class B directors:

Section 4 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, reads in part as follows:

“Class A shall consist of three members, without discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, or national origin, who shall be chosen by and be representative of the stockholding banks . . . No officer or director of a member bank shall be eligible to serve as a class A director unless nominated and elected by banks which are members of the same group as the member bank of which [they are] an officer or director.”

“Class B shall consist of three members, who shall represent the public and shall be elected without discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, or national origin, and with due but not exclusive consideration to the interests of agriculture, commerce, industry, services, labor, and consumers . . . No director of class B shall be an officer, director, or employee of any bank.”

“No Senator or Representative in Congress shall be a member of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or an officer or a director of a Federal Reserve bank.”

“. . . That whenever any member banks within the same Federal Reserve district are subsidiaries of the same bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, participation in any such nomination or election by such member banks, including such bank holding company if it is also a member bank, shall be confined to one of such banks, which may be designated for the purpose by such holding company.”

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “System”) has expressed the opinion that it is inappropriate, as a general rule, for directors of Federal Reserve Banks to hold partisan political or public office in the service of the United States, or of any State, territory, county, district, political subdivision, or municipality thereof, to act as members of political party committees, or to serve as officers or directors of political action committees or as members of the governing bodies of such committees. The System’s policy is to avoid any situations that might give the appearance of associating the Reserve Banks with political activities.

The Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York has resolved that all persons who stand for election as Class A or Class B directors shall be citizens of the United States.

RENÉ F. JONES

President and Chief Executive Officer
M&T Bank Corp.
Buffalo, New York

René F. Jones is chairman and chief executive officer of M&T Bank, which has $200 billion in assets and a network of more than 1,000 branches in the eastern United States.

Before being named chairman and CEO in December 2017, Jones served as M&T's chief financial officer from 2005 to 2016. In 2005, he was named to M&T's Management Group, a group of senior executives responsible for the company's strategic direction. Jones joined M&T in 1992 as part of its executive associates program. He began his career in accounting at the Boston-based office of Ernst & Young before moving to a private equity firm.

Jones is vice chair of the Bank Policy Institute. He serves on the boards of ACV Auctions, Boston College, and the Pan-Mass Challenge, as well as on the advisory council of the University at Buffalo.

As one of only a few Black CEOs in the Fortune 500, Jones is passionate about equity of opportunity. He serves as a steward of the Council for Inclusive Capitalism and on the capital advisory committee of Aux21, a seed-stage firm investing in the future of global commerce with a focus on companies led by immigrant founders.

Jones received a Bachelor of Science in management science from Boston College and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Rochester.
